

Geo-Spies 2010-2011

This year, we'll have a geography theme in the library. Each month we'll feature a continent. Anne will read stories from that continent, and students can participate in researching questions about that continent.

September - North America

October - South America

November - Europe

December/January - Australia

February - Africa

April - Asia