

January 2010

The Mock Caldecott Vote is in! The students at Manor School have spoken.
Here are the results:

1. Duck! Rabbit!	45 votes
2. A Book	32 votes
3. A Curious Garden	29 votes
4. Pele: King of Soccer	25 votes
5. Wink: The ninja who wanted...	20 votes
6. Robot Zot!	17 votes
7. The Lion and the Mouse *	16 votes
8. Wombat Walkabout	15 votes
8. Orangutan Tongs	15 votes
9. Dinotrux	14 votes
9. Curious Collection of Cats	14 votes
9. Tsunami!	14 votes
10. 14 Cows for America	11 votes
10. Let's Do Nothing!	11 votes
11. A Penguin Story	9 votes
11. Jeremy Draws a Monster	9 votes
12. Coretta Scott	7 votes
13. Red Sings from Treetops	6 votes
14. All the World 	5 votes
14. Moonshot	5 votes
14. Higher! Higher!	5 votes

Other Votes: Most Loved in All the World, Chicken Little, My People, One Beetle Too Many, each got 4 votes; The Day-Glo Brothers, Otis, Come to the Fairies' Ball, Mermaid Queen, and Hello Baby! each got three votes, and Billy and Milly Short and Silly, Boo to You!, Never Smile at a Monkey, The Storm in the Barn, Isabel and the Hungry Coyote, My Uncle Emily, Our Abe Lincoln, Redwoods, Words to My Life's Song, The Boy Who Invented T.V., Naked Mole Rat Gets Dressed, The Lion's Share, Honk Honk Goose!, City I Love, and Lousy Rotten Stinkin' Grapes received one or two votes.

* Actual Caldecott Medal winner

 Actual Caldecott Honor winners

I hope to have most of the winners in the library by April. It's such a great experience to watch the students study the books, and make their selection. They love doing it, and take it seriously.

