

Dear Wildcat Families,

We hope this email finds you prepared for a great weekend of Yes Theater at the Playhouse. Get to www.yestheater.org for more information and please make an attempt to get to a show this weekend!

Things You Should Know:

Yearbook Information - Time is running out to buy a yearbook and Yearbooks make great holiday gifts! Last date to order is 12/18. Yearbooks are not available after Winter Break. The price is $35. Financial assistance is available – contact Maureen in the office for more information – mmoulton@rossvalleyschools.org . Make checks out to White Hill School and return with the attached order form to the main school office.

Dec 10 – Thursday - Celebrate Green Ways to School (hosted by Teens Go Green Club) - For the students who walk, bike, bus or carpool to school on Dec 10th, plan to enjoy treats galore from Bike Blender and Cliff Bars! Start with a delicious Bike Blender smoothie in front of the school in the morning and if you miss the morning smoothie, get a coupon for a smoothie at lunchtime. Support our Green Club!

White Hill Geography Bee – Mrs. Stuart and Ms. Noyer are pleased to be supporting the Geography Bee at White Hill this year. Please encourage your child so participate in this fun and learning-filled experience. The informational meeting for the Bee will be on December 9th (next Wednesday) during lunch in Room 200. See below for the rest of the schedule.

Wed. 12/16 & Wed. 1/6	Optional study sessions - Room 200
Week of 1/11-15	Geography Bees (number of rounds depending upon number of entrants) at lunch - Room 200
April 9	State Bee
May 26	National Bee in Washington D.C.

Need Milk? See the attached order form for milk at school.

H1N1 Update – Please read the attached information on H1N1 from the Marin County Public Health Department.

Community Information – Please see the attached community information re: events in our area.

Conferences (for the most part) have concluded for all 6th graders. Conferences for 7/8th graders will continue through next week. If you are interested in having a conference with one of your child's teachers and do not have one scheduled, please don't hesitate to ask for a meeting. We are more than happy to make arrangements to meet with you.

Have a great weekend and Go Wildcats!
