Highlights from the Board Meeting of Thursday, December 4, 2008

- Jack Schreder & Associates presented a report on the District's Master Plan for facilities to accommodate enrollment growth. The Facilities Planning Advisory Committee (FPAC) was present to hear the report. The FPAC is a group of parents, representatives from Fairfax and San Anselmo Town Councils and Business Community, teachers, classified staff and administrators from the district. The Board of Trustees discussed options for facilities they would like the FPAC to consider. The FPAC is charged with developing options for the board to consider for long term solutions to our growing enrollment. The next meeting of the FPAC is scheduled for January 27, 2009, 4:00 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. at Brookside Upper Campus multi-purpose room.

Highlights of the Upcoming Board Meeting of Thursday, December 11, 2008

- The Board will conduct its annual reorganization and elect Board President and Clerk for 2009. New committee assignments will also be determined.
- The Board will review revisions to the schools' Single Plan for Student Achievement.
- The 1st Interim Budget will be presented for board approval. The 1st Interim is a revision of the budget adopted last June. It does not yet include the reductions projected to remedy the state's revenue shortfall.
